Network for New Music showcases the music of the Millennial generation featuring five works by some of the most talented composers of this generation. The two featured commissioned works include: Reflections #2 (viola, cello, piano) by Rene Orth, and a new work for violin and cello by composer Joshua Hey. The program takes further shape with: Sky Macklay's bold and humorous FastSlowHighLow for violin and piano; the Philadelphia premiere of Charles Peck's piano quartet Sunburst; Gabriel Bolaños's los minusculos for solo cello and electronics; and a performance of erebus, an evocative work for clarinet and piano, by the critically acclaimed pianist and composer Andrew Hsu.

Featuring exceptional performances by these members of the Network for New Music Ensemble:

Clipper Erickson - piano

Thomas Kraines - cello

Hirono Oka - violin

Burchard Tang - viola

Guest artist performances by clarinetist, Yoonah Kim and pianist, Andrew Hsu.

The event will be followed by a brief post-concert panel discussion with composers and musicians.
