Network for New Music invites you to join us for a virtual concert event featuring music by Gregory T.S. Walker & Emma O'Halloran. The program opens with Emma O'Halloran's Sum of Its Parts, an evocative work for tenor saxophone and electronics. The overlapping layers of sound create an experience that is impossible to quantify! The second half of the program consists of four works from Gregory T.S. Walker's post-modern collection: Rock, Pop, and Hip-hop Fantasies. These exquisitely constructed pieces are full of contemporary resonances we are sure you will enjoy. This music is expertly performed by Network's wonderful musicians, Hirono Oka, Julia Li (violin), and Matthew Levy (saxophone & electronics).
